By Feeding Rawson's Hen Feed!

The purest, most healthy, and cheapest in the market. One package will convince the most skeptical person it pays to feed it. It will keep the fow in health, keep them plump from your flock and make a large increase in amount of eggs, and the eggs will hatch more readily when it is fed as your hens. It is not a cost-ly; try one package and you will always feed it afterwards. Put up in larger packages than any other kind now in the market, and will always give entire satisfaction.

Ethan Shuckley is fixing over the old Shackley store into rents.

C. G. Mason and W. C. Leavitt have new window shades, the work of Mr. Leavitt.

Just opened at Brackett's Branch a new lot of ceiling cloth.

L. L. Howard, Jr., has returned after his grand tour to work a few weeks on grand work.

Some fine acornella have been added to the stock of Noyes' drug store.

The roof of the Tuxedo house has fallen in at the Universalist church has fallen in.

K. Bangs, owner of "Hebron Deck," is in town Wednesday.

F. P. Thomas of the Andover House was the guest of H. H. Crockett, Tuesday.

Several ways for sale. See ad. W. S. Pierce No. 10, Norway, Me.

Charles A. Wood, who was in town last week to see his sister who is very ill with consumption.

Among other things at the sale of the late Mrs. J. H. Crockett's estate.

A wash bowl and pitcher to match for sale at Greene & Co's.

H. H. Foye, D. L. D., and wife of the Kent's Hill Seminary spent the Sabbath at the home of Mrs. Crockett.

William A. Emery (Mark Tapley) has been appointed trial justice.

Remember and attend the auction sale at John S. Baker's new building on the corner of Main and Broadway.

Read and see prices.

Boy's school caps at Webb & Wakefield's.

A vote of thanks is extended by the Norway House Board to all who have rendered services for the benefit of the house, also to people that attended and made them a success.

A car load of fine sets at the Upper grade place.

Charles B. Cummings gave he has placed Cummings' celebrated "Sea Foam" under the guidance and tuition of Sam Caldwell of the State of Maine.

All admirers of good horse flesh should call on, or send to, Sam for pedigree cards, etc.

As a result of A. B. Williamson's recent trip to Boston, Noyes' Drug Store is filled with new goods.

The Norway Light Infantry will give their last drill and ball of the season at Norway Hall, Thursday evening, May 5th. Tickets to door, 25 cents; gallery tickets, 25. No seats reserved.

Another lot of the best of the season just arrived at Brackett's Branch. Come and see them.

W. C. Pierce has concluded to locate at Los Angeles, California. He has gone into the photography business in connection with another gentleman.

Children's clothes at Webb & Wakefield's. S. B. Andrews, who recently went to Lincoln, N. B., on a prospecting trip, has concluded to remain there this summer at least. His wife is shortly to meet him there and the indications are that they will locate permanently in that city.

Mrs. Andrews' return for the present week. She is accompanied by her daughter, Miss Mary, who is a student at the University of California.

Flourish of the season at Webb & Wakefield's. John S. Baker of Waterville, has sold his farm on Hutton Avenue and others of Harrison. Mr. Baker intends to come to Norway village to live.

We would like to say to the farmers that they have some very nice goods at Greene & Co's also some very nice goods at the sale of the late Mrs. J. H. Crockett's estate.

A new line of boys' suits just received at Judkins'.

The Ladies Universalist Circle will meet at Concord Hall next Tuesday afternoon and evening. Work for the ladies in the afternoon. Subject, "The Cross." Prizes in the evening.

Among the new goods just received at Noyes' Drug Store are the following: Picture Frames, Wall Papers, Ceiling Papers and Decorations, Frames, Window Shades, etc.

The collection of envelopes at the Oxford Book Store is a great curiosity to the generation that has grown up since the war. It will repay you to call in and see them. The Colored Birds of Nesting, his store into a museum.

Carriages of all kinds for sale by H. L. Libby. He has some of the best makes of carriages and wagons and the largest stock to select from in Oxford County. Read the ad. and write to Libby for prices and particulars.

Rev. O. S. Pillsbury at the Methodist church will preach his farewell sermon next Sunday at the usual hour. Mr. Pillsbury has been here three years and he will not probably be returned by the Conference. His society has flourished under his care and his presence and counsel will be much missed in all reform movements, especially so in the cause of temperance.

Mrs. Woodman, her mother and daughter, are going to Boston and New York for the latest styles in millinery this week.

The following teachers have been engaged to keep the summer schools:—Corn Stuart, teacher in No. 2, Emma Knight in No. 3, Louie Conant in No. 4, Kate Hobbs in No. 5, Augusta, teacher in No. 6, Mary Stuart in No. 10, Izet Stuart in No. 11, Mrs. Kitchley in No. 12, Lida E.
